Thanks for taking the time to read our story!

Welcome to a real-live Waco tradition that counts as it's fans and customers, Waco locals, country music star Pat Green, just about everyone who's attended Baylor, and our nation's White House Press Corp. & Staff.

Everyone loves to have a good time at George's where the Chicken Fried Steaks, Crazy Wings and the Big "O" just taste better when you're sharing 'em w/ good friends.

It all started in 1930, when Harry Burmeister opened Harry B's, which is now George's Bar. He was one of the founding members of of the NoZe (That's NOT a typo!) Brotherhood at Baylor University, a group of fun-loving students who lampooned the administration. That NoZe tradition still continues today!

In 1967, George Betros bought Harry B's and changed the name. He introduced the Big "O", our now-famous 18-ounce frozen goblet of your favorite brew.

OK, you've just gotta know...why The Big "O"? Lucille Brown, a waitress back then, nicknamed it the Big Orange, and the rest of the staff shortened it to the Big "O"! Satisfied?

Sammy Citrano, who had made quite a name for himself in Waco restaurant circles, bought George's. He kept the traditions, and he was smart enough to keep the Big "O"!

He added The Big "O" Deck and the George's Too Banquet Hall, so you have more room to share w/ your friends.

At George's, you don't have to be embarrassed if you want liver and onions. We've got 'em! Along w/ the best Chicken Fried Steak in Waco (voted #1 year after year in the Tribune-Herald!), and the whole catfish, deep fried and literally good to the bone.

You're probably asking, "This stuff is GREAT! Do these guys cater?" These guys have catered events like the Waco Chamber of Commerce Banquet, Texas Sports Hall of Fame, Big 12 Athletic Events, Class Reunions, Weddings and on a special day, President George W. Bush & his family and friends.

George's is getting pretty well known nationally, too. MAXIM Magazine named us their Bar of the Month in March 2003, and Texas Monthly has had some frisky things to say, too.

By the way, keep your eyes peeled. Pat Green is singing songs about George's (including George's Bar), and he's a regular here. You just might see him at the table next to you. And it's no surprise that his music is #1 on our jukebox!

We've got some unique items on this menu, like Crazy Wings, so experiment a little. And have some fun w/ your friends. You could have chosen any of 150 restaurants in Waco today, and you chose us. We thank you, and we'll show you a great time.

Welcome to George's, where everybody knows your name!

Have a Big "O" Time,
 Sammy, Delonda & Kyle Citrano, and the Whole George's Staff
